DEDICATION

We dedicate this volume to Mrs. Ella E. Hartley, the Secretary, and Professor George E. Fry, the Historian, in grateful appreciation of the untiring labors which made this volume possible.

900.00 - 100, 1768 - 5-23-74 Cook, J. C.

FOREWORD

In this volume are given the facts gathered by the Historian and the Secretary. To secure this the Historian, Prof. George E. Fry, of Collingswood, N. J., traveled hundreds of miles and wrote thousands of letters; Mrs. Ella E. Hartley, of Pottstown, Pa., the Secretary, also wrote thousands of letters to relatives, seeking information; the information thus received has been compiled forming this volume.

Where information is not given it was impossible to visit or write; but as additional information is obtained it will annually be sent to those having copies of the History, and in this way the volume will become more nearly complete from year to year.

The children and grandchildren of Lawrence Eisenberg are given prominence, and are grouped first; after that, each married grandchild having descendants is given in order with the children and grandchildren of each, continuing to the present.

In order that it may be easily understood, the name of each person is followed by the date of birth; that is followed by the date of death, if not living; each married person's name is followed by the name of the person married, and that name is followed by the date of marriage.

The date of birth and death of persons married into the family are not here given, but if they are desired, most of them can be had by addressing either the Secretary, or the Historian.

The noble, devoted, conscientious, Christian life of a good man should inspire to similar virtues in offspring, and with this hope we prepare this volume.

THE EDITOR.

THE ORGANIZATION'S ORIGIN

The Re-Union idea, for the Eisenbergs, goes back to the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Rev. John Y. Eisenberg, held at Royersford, Pa., January 3, 1913.

At that anniversary Ella Hartley, daughter of William Y. Eisenberg, and Sue E. Conner, daughter of Hannah J. Eisenberg, both nieces of Rev. John Y. Eisenberg, spoke of their desire to see and know more about the Eisenbergs; their wish that there might be a gathering at which there would be all the relatives and the families, etc.

During the day they together approached their uncle, and by their tactful, enthusiastic presentation of their desire and plan, immediately secured his hearty co-operation; these three with Mrs. Hartley's father, William Y. Eisenberg, were able to list in families that day, more than 150 Eisenbergs whom they knew.

From this day they each began gathering data, but agreed that a meeting should be called for more definite action, and more systematic plans.

This gained interest with every passing day, for in reply to letters sent to friends, almost every mail brought lists of new families, and suggestions for securing others; and thus until the first gathering for a re-union there had been listed 630 descendants.

An invitation was issued by these same people to the descendants of Lawrence Eisenberg, to meet at Sanatoga Park, near Pottstown, Pa., on Saturday, June 14, 1913.

In this very happy way the Eisenberg Family Organization had its inception, and from this very unpretentious beginning we have developed into a numerous, co-operative organization.

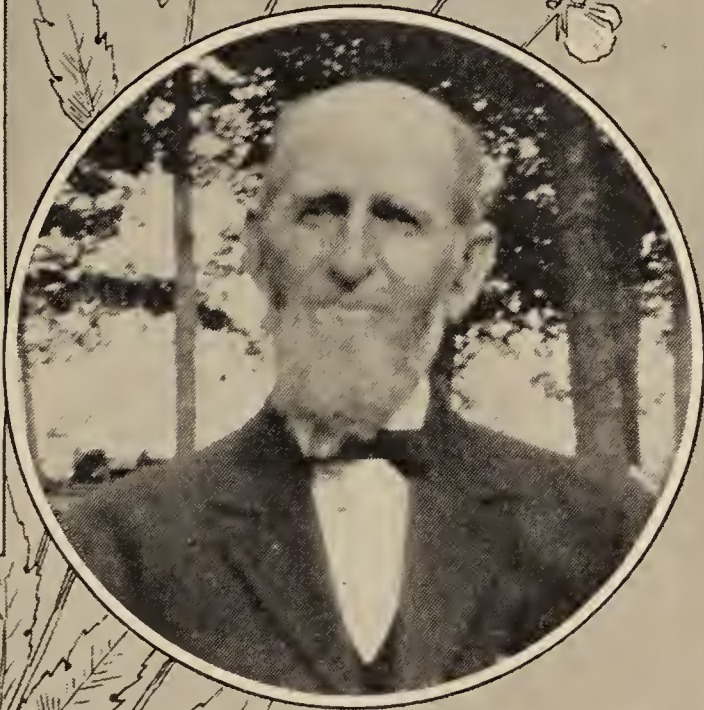

THE FIRST RE-UNION

More than one hundred and fifty persons gathered at Sanatoga Park, Pottstown, June 14, 1913, nearly 150 years after the birth of Lawrence Eisenberg. A complete registration showed there were ten persons present who traced back to Kathryn Eisenberg, oldest child of Lawrence Eisenberg; 78 persons present were descendants of John Eisenberg, the second child of Lawrence Eisenberg; 24 persons were descendants of Peter Eisenberg, the fifth child; 29 persons were descendants of Samuel Eisenberg, the ninth child; one person was descended from Ann Eisenberg, the thirteenth child; a few present did not register.

At ten o'clock, those assembled were called to order, and Rev. John Y. Eisenberg, of Royersford, Pa., was made temporary Chairman; Mrs. Ella Hartley was made temporary Secretary. A roll was formed by having each person give his name and tell from whom a descendant. A number then spoke of the benefits to be derived from a permanent organization and this was immediately effected.

THE FIRST OFFICERS

Rev. John Y. Eisenberg was unanimously elected president for one year; Vice-Presidents were named, representing as far as possible, those from different branches of the family; those named were: Dr. P. Y. Eisenberg, Norristown, Pa.; Wellington Elmer Eisenberg, Philadelphia; Elmer J. Conner, Philadelphia; Prof. Joseph E. Saylor, Limerick, Pa.; Rudolph E. Harley, Pottstown, Pa.; Charles L. Eisenberg, Delanco, N. J.; Samuel F. Poley, Trappe, Pa.; Samuel W. Eisenberg, West Conshohocken, Pa.; Harry C. Eisenberg, Reading, Pa., and George E. Fry, Trenton, N. J. Mrs. Ella Hartley was unanimously elected Secretary, Dr. J. I. Linwood Eisenberg, State Normal School, West Chester, Pa., was made Historian, and Harry C. Eisenberg, Reading, Pa., was made Treasurer.

The friends were all of one mind in desiring to do anything and everything to further the project, and all were enthusiastic in pledging their support and aid in securing data and in enlisting the hearty co-operation of those not present.

The next annual re-union was called to meet at Sanatoga Park, Saturday, June 13, 1914.

After lunch, eaten in the grove, seated in family groups, a group picture of those present was taken by Richard W. Saylor, a great-great-grandson of Lawrence Eisenberg. The remainder of the day was spent in getting acquainted with our stranger relatives, and at the close of the day we parted, every one feeling that a worth-while day of mutual helpfulness and inspiration had been enjoyed.

THE FIRST PRESIDENT

Rev. John Y. Eisenberg, the first President of the Association, was the son of John and Hannah Eisenberg. He was born June 2, 1840, in Montgomery Co., Pa. When he was a lad of nearly 11 years his father died; this made a profound impression on him, and he gave himself to his studies determined to make the most of himself.

He attended the public schools of his home district, and later, after 16 years of age, supplemented this with three terms of three months each at Washington Hall, Trappe, Montgomery Co., Pa. He began teaching, November 3, 1856, when 16 years old, teaching with acceptability and favor first in Berks County for 3 years, then in Montgomery County for 5 years, then in Chester County for 4 years.

January 3, 1863, he was married to Mary Ann Isett, and in March of the same year they moved to Chester Co., Pa., where they engaged in farming. It was here their children were born and grew up. He remained on the farm until April 1, 1893, when he moved to Royersford, Pa., and was clerk in the office of Latshaw and Isett, coal and feed merchants. He remained in this relation until his death.

Rev. John Y. Eisenberg
First President

At the age of 18 he was baptized a member of the Brethren Church at Mingo, a branch of the Indian Creek Church; after moving to Chester County he became a member of the Coventry Church, teaching in the Sunday School which was then organized. The church elected him deacon May 25, 1872, and later, in August, 1880, he was elected to the ministry. He preached in the various churches of the Coventry Church and after moving to Royersford he very acceptably served the newly organized church, preaching for them when they were without a minister.

He was a devout, conscientious, Christian gentleman, and his influence for good was felt in every community where he resided.

As first President of the Eisenberg Re-union Association he had much to do with its success and development. He was enthusiastic and used his spare time in enthusing others, and many of those leading in the work now were inspired to it by his strong appeal.

OUR EFFICIENT SECRETARY

Ella Eisenberg Hartley, only child of William Y. Eisenberg and Charlotte Isett, was born in East Coventry, Chester Co., Pa., March 22, 1872. She attended the public home school and at an early age went to the West Chester State Normal School, from which she graduated with distinction in 1894. She taught very successfully for four years in the public schools near Ambler, Montgomery Co., Pa.

June 28, 1898, she married Prof. Albert D. Hartley, and together they taught in the Point Pleasant, N. J., schools for five years, until advancing years of her parents caused her to relinquish her chosen work and return to the home of her birth to be with her parents.

During her spare time here and during the winter days and the long winter nights, she, with the aid of her father, has ferreted out the relatives of Lawrence Eisenberg, and together they have classified into families all the known members of this numerous, noble family.

The Eisenberg Re-union Organization owes to her and her father a gratitude, and an expression of appreciation that words very inadequately convey. The work they have accomplished will only have its real worth increasingly appreciated by the Eisenberg generations yet to come.

OUR WORTHY HISTORIAN

Prof. George E. Fry, first child of Eleanor Eisenberg Fry, (sixteenth child of Lawrence Eisenberg) was born near Skippack, Montgomery Co., Pa., November 15, 1846. His early education was obtained in the public schools, supplemented by terms at Kulpsville Academy, North Wales Academy, Tremont Seminary, Norristown, and finally at the Millersville State Normal School, Pa.

Mrs. Ella Hartley
Secretary

He taught school in the southern portions of Montgomery and Bucks Counties, and later in Philadelphia, holding the Principalship of the Fox Chase School. In 1873 he was elected to a Principalship in Camden, N. J., and continued to serve as Principal in Camden and other New Jersey schools until his retirement a few years ago, having given 38 years of his best service to the cause.

June 17, 1869, he married Mary Amanda Roney, and they now live at 610 Stokes Avenue, Collingswood, N. J.

Professor Fry is a devout Christian gentleman, and during his life has served many years in official capacities in the Methodist Church.

Professor Fry took an active interest in the organization since 1914, serving as a Vice-President, and doing much valuable work. Upon the death of Rev. John Y. Eisenberg, the Historian, Dr. J. Linwood Eisenberg, became President, and Professor Fry was elected Historian. His work in this position is marvelous. In his diplomatic way he has secured valuable information from sources where others had failed; he has taken this work as a God-given life work, and he pursues it with the same painstaking care, and prayerful guidance that a minister gives to his charge. Through his devotion and consecration we have made large acquisitions to our family roll, and many errors of spelling or date have been corrected.

To him, perhaps, more than to any other person, the organization owes its gratitude for carrying our family record so far toward completion.

THE PRESENT PRESIDENT

Dr. John Linwood Eisenberg, the present President of the organization, is the son of John Y. Eisenberg and Mary Ann Isett, and a great-grandson of Lawrence Eisenberg. He was born in East Coventry, Chester Co., Pa., April 7, 1877.

His early life was spent on his father's farm, attending the home school during the winter months. At an early age he attended Juniata College, from which he graduated in 1895. He immediately began teaching, pursuing courses of study all the while, until 1905 when he was elected Principal of Schools at Royersford, Pa., his home town. He served in this relation until 1912. During this time he completed a course at Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa., taking the degree of A.B. in 1906, and the higher degree of A.M. in 1908.

Ever ambitious, he, not satisfied with these degrees, took up a course at the University of Pennsylvania which in 1913 led to the degree of Ph.D.

In 1912 he accepted the position of Dean of the Department of Education in the West Chester State Normal School, which he left two years later to accept the Superintendency of the Chester City Schools, where he remained with credit and distinction until 1917, when, from a long list of educators, he was selected to the

Prof. George E. Fry
Historian

Principalship of the Slippery Rock State Normal School, Pa., where he still labors. He has greatly enlarged and broadened the scope of the work here and has gained for himself great distinction as an organizer and educator.

Doctor Eisenberg is a minister, having been elected by the Church of the Brethren; he is a lecturer, having delivered numerous popular lectures throughout the country. He is also very popular in Institute and Chautauqua work; he is an author, having jointly compiled the "Happy Hour Readers."

June 14, 1905, he married Miss Emma H. Johnson, of Girardville, Pa. They now reside at Slippery Rock, Pa.

THE HISTORY

Between the years of 1600 and 1780 not less than 40,000 emigrants arrived in America. They came from England, Wales, France, Germany, Switzerland, Sweden, and other countries to America to find new homes. Among these early settlers are found many family names familiar in the Eisenberg descendants. Those found most frequently are Harley, Metz, Yerger, Heavner, Poley, Horning, Haldeman, Longacre, Grater, Oberholtzer, Wilbraham, Gottwals, Ziegler, Isett, Ludwig, Eisenhart, Eisenberg, and Willauer.

Among these emigrants were supposed to have come three brothers, Lawrence, John Henry, and Gabriel Eisenberg. The first of these, Lawrence, settled in the Schuylkill Valley, following the river from its mouth to what is now Montgomery County; the second brother, John Henry, settled in Central Pennsylvania, where there is a large group who annually gather in re-union at Altoona, Pa.; the third, Gabriel, settled in Tennessee, where, also, there is a large number.

Although there is a difference in the spelling of the names, some spelling it Isenberg, others Eisenberg, it is believed to be all one family, yet this family connection has never been definitely established.

LAWRENCE EISENBERG

The first of these brothers was the progenitor of our family, the "Grand Trunk" of our "Family Tree." He was born June 30, 1763, the place being unknown. Of his early life no data can be found, and so no authentic statements can be made concerning him prior to his marriage to Mary Kopp, July 11, 1790.

According to his own record, a facsimile of which is shown on page 17, one daughter, Catharine (Caty), was born December 17, 1791. About eleven months later the mother died and was buried, we believe, in Franconia Township, Montgomery Co., Pa., the home of her family and ancestors.

The next authentic record of Lawrence Eisenberg is when he married Ruth Jones, a daughter of Peter and Catharine Jones. They settled in what is now Douglas Township, Berks Co., Pa., and for nearly a year they lived here until they moved to their newly acquired home in Limerick Township, Montgomery Co., Pa.

Present President

THE HOMESTEAD

The farm which Lawrence Eisenberg purchased for his home and which he held for nearly 30 years, is located in Limerick Township, where Upper Providence, Limerick, and Perkiomen Townships meet; it is about three miles from Gratersford, about the same distance from Schwenksville and Trappe. It is on the banks of Lodle Creek, which runs through the farm and flows into the

The Eisenberg Homestead
Limerick, Montgomery County, Pa.

Perkiomen. The farm is still well known in the community and is now owned by a Mr. Enterline.

This farm was deeded to him October 11, 1794. The record shows that Nicholas Swire conveyed 75 acres and 31 perches that formed a well-defined farm, and 10 acres additional, to Lawrence Eisenberg for £475. April 16, 1796, the same Nicholas Swire sold Lawrence Eisenberg 4 acres and 91 perches more, making the entire farm to contain 89 acres and 122 perches.

It was to this farm he came with his wife Ruth, and the daughter Catharine, now over a year old, and here the remaining fifteen children were born, and they were all raised here, for the Eisenbergs lived here until May 29, 1824, when the farm was sold to Isaac Kratz, for $2163.30, this being the first time United States money was paid for the farm. The family now moved to a smaller place where in 1826 Lawrence Eisenberg died, his wife, Ruth, dying the same year. They are both buried at Douglasville, Pa.

It is believed our ancestor was a member of the Reformed Church, but his wife, Ruth Jones, was a member of the Episcopal Church. They were devout Christians, and their children were all reared with goodly moral examples before them.

Their children from birth were taught religious principles by precept and example and this beneficent teaching has descended through the generations as a worth-while heritage from noble parents, and as a result of this inheritance the Eisenbergs have always been a power for good wherever they have lived.

The first branching out of the family was when their oldest daughter, Catharine, married and settled near the old homestead, and to this day the townships of Limerick, Providence, Perkiomen, Salford, and Franconia abound with families named Poley. Later other members of the family married and located nearby, but in later years moved to the Middle West, where a number of the families now reside and form a large part of the population. Some of the younger children, when they married, went to New Jersey, and their descendants are still native there. From the ancestral home they scattered thus and multiplied until in 1920, when a survey was made it was shown that descendants of Lawrence Eisenberg numbered 3600 and were found in 30 States of the Union, in the city of Washington, and in China.

The principal occupation of those early days was farming, and the Eisenberg farm was reputed to be the best tilled and most productive farm for miles around. Most of the children when married engaged in the same pursuit, and down through the generations the descendants of Lawrence Eisenberg were the leading farmers, and today some of the known descendants are owners of farms of 1500 acres and more, while many have smaller farms of various acreages.

Among the grandchildren some sought other lines of livelihood aside from tilling the soil; and we find them in the various trades and professions. There are teachers, ministers, physicians, lawyers, scientists, bankers, business men, men of affairs, and, as generation follows generation, we find an ever widening sphere of occupation and influence until today there can be found leaders in every department of trade, business, or profession who can trace their lineage back to Lawrence Eisenberg; and wherever they are found they most worthily are evidencing the noble blood and heritage of the worthy ancestor.

Rejoicing in the realization of such a record through the generations, the Eisenbergs are not unmindful of other families of equally worthy ancestors, who have like records and history, whose families have intermarried and whose heritages we jointly share. These we give to our descendants with the earnest wish that they, in their generation, may seek to bestow these same sterling qualities and virtues on their children and grandchildren, and thus cause the worthy name of Lawrence Eisenberg to be perpetuated.
